THE OCALA BANNER TIPS ITS HAT TO AMERICAN WOMANHOOD.

The Monticello Tribune and the DeSoto County Champion take exceptions to what the Ocala Banner said anent Great Britain's deceased monarch.

She was the head of the Church of England and was said to have been a most exemplary, pious Christian woman. That being the statement and the general belief, the Ocala Banner ventured to ask—measured by His texts—if she walked in the footsteps of Christ?

"Lay not up treasures on earth"—the Queen laid up many millions.

"Feed my lambs"—the Queen scarcely reached the level of Dives for he did feed Lazarus on the crumbs that fell from his table.

"Give to the poor!"—the Queen did not remember them. See the press dispatches regarding her will.

When the Ocala Banner sees what Mrs. Leland Standford, and other women it could name, are doing with their millions in this country and then reads the Queen's will, it lifts its hat in high admiration for this queenly type of American womanhood.

Happiness in Our Sanctum Continues.

Mr. C. D. Massey, who has for the past two years been connected with the Equitable Life Assurance Society as cashier in the R. H. Baker & Co., agency in this city, has gone to St. Louis, where in the future he will have his headquarters. Mr. Massey has been appointed general manager of the Equitable for Southern Illinois, which is one of the most profitable and lucrative fields in the country. He has associated with him Mr. J. C. Roberson, one of the best life insurance men in this country.

While Mr. Massey has only been in the life insurance business for the past three years he has made a record scarcely equaled in insurance circles. He left his home in Florida a little over three years ago and accepted a minor position with the Equitable in Chicago, and by his close application to business, tact and executive ability promotions quickly followed each other until he was sent to Texas as cashier of the agency here. He made such a success here by his upright business methods that the society was not slow in recognizing this fact, and his merit has won for him one of the most lucrative and paying fields in the United States. Success is assured Mr. Massey in his new territory.—Austin (Tex.) Daily Tribune.

Assisted by CUTICURA OINTMENT, for preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales and dandruff and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening and soothing red, rough and sore hands, in the form of baths for annoying irritations, inflammations and chafings, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for ulcerative weaknesses, and for many sensitive antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, and especially mothers, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery. No amount of persuasion can induce those who have once used it to use any other, especially for preserving and purifying the skin, scalp, and hair of infants and children. CUTICURA SOAP combines delicate emollient properties derived from CUTICURA, the great skin cure, with the purest of cleansing ingredients and the most refreshing of flower odors. No other medicated soap ever compounded is to be compared with it for preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair, and hands. Thus it combines in ONE SOAP the BEST PRICE, twenty-five cents, the BEST skin and complexion soap and the BEST toilet and baby soap in the world. Sold throughout the world.
